To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write a letter of recommendation on behalf of Adrian Bao. I highly recommend Adrian to your company, program, or organization. I have known Adrian since January, 2018 as he was one of my students in the following course that I teach: Student Success 210: Transfer Strategies. The content of this course includes: Planning for a successful transfer experience, utilizing university resources, and transition procedures, policies, and activities. Adrian was my best performing and top student for this particular course.

As his instructor, I had the opportunity to observe his participation and interaction in class and to evaluate Adrian's knowledge of the subject matter. He is an outstanding student in all respects. Adrian has proven that through hard work, follow through, and teamwork, he can accomplish tasks in a courteous and timely manner. For example, each student was responsible for completing a professional portfolio, documenting his or her overall university transfer strategies. Adrian did extremely well on this project, demonstrating his preparedness as he embarked on the next chapter of his educational journey. This includes attending the University of Arizona to major in Computer Science with a double minor in Electrical & Computer Engineering as well as Mathematics.

Adrian is well equipped to grow from challenges that he is presented with. Adrian has a strong work ethic, excellent communication skills, and he is more than dependable. I am confident that these traits prepare Adrian to be a strong asset for your organization, program, or company. In sum, I expect Adrian to have a strong and prosperous future.
